

Pearl Academy and WRAP Organise Social Compliance Workshop

Ethical purchasing is an important term these days as most of the customers, public, interest groups and the government are exerting pressure on companies to follow it. To promote this further, Pearl Academy of Fashion and WRAP recently conducted a one-day compliance workshop in Delhi. Avedis Seferian, Director of Compliance Administration was the speaker at the workshop. Some of the topics that were discussed were social and ethical issues faced by companies, an overview of local and national laws, requirements of WRAP principles and ways to establish, maintain and implement a social compliance system. Companies like Orient Craft, TCNS, M. M Exports, Estocorp and Radnik Exports participated at the event.
